

Robert and Sandra Hooks

London City Mission

London, England

After a long period working with the young homeless on the streets of the capital, Rob is now church based, supporting the ministry, at St. Marks Church, Battersea, SW London.

St. Marks has a strong outreach emphasis, and has adopted a nearby parish church on a rough inner city estate. Rob is currently involved as an evangelist on the estate, as well as a pastor for ex-offenders.

Once a week, Rob leads an ALPHA course on Christian basics, in the nearby Wandsworth Prison. We have seen God change many lives here and it's been a great blessing for us, as well as the inmates.

He also serves as a bible teacher in the Nehemiah Project, a Christian rehabilitation center for ex-addicts. Sandy works part-time as a music teacher in two nearby state schools and is involved in leading worship at St. Marks as well as on Prison Alpha.

Prayer Requests:

Our vision for the future....Is God calling us to refocus? Prayer for confidence in the Lord, and courage to hear the Lord's heartbeat.
